Nomination form: Tees-Swale high nature value farming best practice award We want to recognise farmers and land managers who have continually managed important habitats and species (for example upland hay meadows, curlew and other waders) on their farm and who have integrated sensitive high nature value farming methods into their farming business to conserve and enhance these areas. Nominees should demonstrate the features present on the holding as well as how the sensitive management of these has been integrated into the farming business over a sustained period of time. There is a total maximum of 2,000 words for the nomination. Up to 5 photographs can be attached. Conditions of entry: nominees agree to allowing onfarm judging and publicity if shortlisted. Your name: Email/ and or phone number: Address of farm holding:
We want to recognise farmers and land managers who have continually managed important habitats and species (for example upland hay meadows, curlew and other waders) on their farm and who have integrated sensitive high nature value farming methods into their farming business to conserve and enhance these areas. Nominees should demonstrate the features present on the holding as well as how the sensitive management of these has been integrated into the farming business over a sustained period of time. There is a total maximum of 2,000 words for the nomination. Up to 5 photographs can be attached. Conditions of entry: nominees agree to allowing onfarm judging and publicity if shortlisted. Your name: Email/ and or phone number:
curlew and other waders) on their farm and who have integrated sensitive high nature value farming methods into their farming business to conserve and enhance these areas. Nominees should demonstrate the features present on the holding as well as how the sensitive management of these has been integrated into the farming business over a sustained period of time. There is a total maximum of 2,000 words for the nomination. Up to 5 photographs can be attached. Conditions of entry: nominees agree to allowing onfarm judging and publicity if shortlisted. Your name: Email/ and or phone number:
farm judging and publicity if shortlisted. Your name: Email/ and or phone number:
Email/ and or phone number:
Email/ and or phone number:
Address of farm holding:
Address of farm holding:

Explain how one or more important habitats have
has a responded a very time
been managed over time
Tell us about the features and habitats present on the present holding

Explain how high nature value farming practices been integrated into your farming
business
business
Demonstrate the longevity
of these practices on the farm holding
Signature:	Date:
Signature.	Date.
İ	