

Nomination form:

Tees-Swale nature recovery award

We want to recognise farmers and land managers who have carried out work on their holding to create/restore/expand habitats and improve conditions for species. Nominees should demonstrate that they have carried out nature recovery works on the holding and integrated ongoing management of these into their farming business.

There is a total maximum of 2,000 words for the nomination. Up to 5 photographs can be attached. Conditions of entry: nominees agree to allowing on-farm judging and publicity if shortlisted.
