Nenthead200 Photo Competition Submission Form

Deadline for submissions: Midday 2 August

All entries must be dropped off at St John's Church, Nenthead

To submit a photo to the Nenthead200 Photo Competition please ensure you have included the following:

- A physical copy of the photo(s) you are submitting – this must be your own original work
- A copy of the historic photo(s) which you are recreating - mining photo(s) only
- A completed photo submission form (this form) – please ensure you complete both sides of this form, otherwise your photo may not be considered

Please complete your details below and once happy with your submission place in the envelope provided/ use one of your own, seal the envelope and place the envelope back in the box which will be in St John's Church.

The adult competition will be judged and voted on by visitors to Nenthead Church. The photos will be put up on display and open for voting from Monday 4th August, until Friday 22nd August.

The under 16's competition - The photos will be judged by local photographer, Terry Stout.

The winners of both competitions will be announced, and prizes presented at the Nenthead200 celebrations at 3.15pm on Sunday 24th August, on the playing field in Nenthead. Winners will be contacted via email if they are unable to attend on 24th August.

Competition Rules

You may submit more than one entry.

Your photo(s) should be no larger than A4.

Your photo(s) must be recreating a historic image of Nenthead, or something to do with the village, i.e. its people, buildings, wildlife, geology etc.

For anything other than a photo showing people in the past, please choose the landscape photo option.

If you have any questions about this competition, please contact Rebecca Cadbury-Simmons, rebecca@northpennines.org.uk
